These changes might increase the cost of auto body repair, but there are some upsides. As cars get stronger and smarter, experts expect that they'll last longer, too. Also, new safety technology, like backup cameras and collision warning systems, means that crashes should become less frequent and less serious.

For the Best Results, Get a Compressor and Paint Sprayer. Many car body repairs will require you to fix and re-touch a section of your car. Once you have matched the paint (it's best to go straight to the manufacturer for the paint), you need a high-quality paint sprayer for auto body work, preferably with a light enough touch to easily apply a few coats over several days.
