I just finished Call me Cockroach after reading Call Me Tuesday. I cried, laughed, got angry, put the book down in sadness and anger, but could not stop reading it. I give the author so much credit and admiration for writing these books; let alone soldier on to living the life full of love she has today.

It did happen. Talking openly and honestly helped me to understand that the most significant hindrance to my healing process had been my inability to discuss the details of my childhood abuse. Telling Dani was a positive step, possibly my first on the path to healing.” — Leigh Byrne, Call Me Cockroach
